This handsome exhibition is possible only with the generous support of our volunteers and donors. We thank Stevenson University for hosting the exhibition. We thank our tireless volunteers who attend to the legion of details. We thank our vendors, our fellow art organizations, and our individual donors who support us with the awards. And lastly, we thank our artists whose talent and inspiration provide the art.

About the Baltimore Watercolor Society

Founded in 1885, the Baltimore Watercolor Society is the third oldest organization in the country devoted to the use of watercolor as a painting medium. Since its founding, numerous artists of national reputation have been associated with the Society as members, exhibitors and jurors.

The purpose of the Society is to encourage cultural interest in the development of professional quality, original works of art, executed in aqueous media.

The Society offers its signature artist and associate members opportunities to exhibit in local and regional shows, frequent newsletters, workshops, lectures and demonstrations, and trips to major exhibitions.

The Baltimore Watercolor Society is a 501(C3) non-profit charitable organization, incorporated in the State of Maryland.

Juror’s Statement

I am honored to have the opportunity to serve as juror for this exhibition of the Baltimore Watercolor Society. Selecting this show was a joy, but judging is also a heartbreaking task. There were so many good entries that selecting between them was difficult. Sometimes the choice came down to the technical finesse of a painting, but more often I made choices because of the remarkable and dynamic nature of each piece. I found the number of unique ideas and expressions refreshing, the level of proficiency quite impressive.

Overall I think I have assembled the best possible exhibition, representative of the artwork submitted. Congratulations to all who entered, especially to those who made the cut amongst such steep competition.

Word from the Mid-Atlantic Chair

The Mid-Atlantic Exhibition is one of the largest events sponsored by the Baltimore Watercolor Society each year. We are indebted to the artists, volunteers, donors and Stevenson University for its success. Kudos to you all.

As remarkable as the exhibition is, it is just another accomplishment of the members of BWS who for over 125 years have nurtured the art of watercolor and those who create it. Springing from the desire of five women in 1885 to have an opportunity to paint and exhibit together, we have grown to over 600 women and men who continue that tradition. We hope you will join us, both at the Mid-Atlantic Exhibition and at the other exhibitions throughout the year.
