

2021 MID-ATLANTIC REGIONAL WATERCOLOR EXHIBITION

Like so many other art organizations across the globe, BWS adjusted our 2021 plans for the Mid-Atlantic Regional Exhibition to protect the health and safety of our audience during the coronavirus outbreak. The exhibition is only presented this year as an online exhibition through the: Baltimore Watercolor Society's website—www.baltimorewatercolorsociety.org/2021Mid-Atlantic-Exhibition and the BlackRock Center for the Arts website—www.blackrockcenter.org/events/)

📍 BWS Gold Medal in Memory of David Churchill,
donated by Susan Churchill and Michael Eddy - $1,500
Sydni Reubin - Plattsburgh, NY
Projection / 24x24 / (MW) / $750

Word from the Board

This handsome exhibition is possible only with the generous support of our volunteers and donors. We thank BlackRock Center for the Arts for publicizing the exhibition. We thank our tireless volunteers who attend to the legion of details. We thank our vendors, our fellow art organizations, and our individual donors who support us with the awards. And lastly, we thank our artists whose talent and inspiration provide the art.

About the Baltimore Watercolor Society

Founded in 1885, the Baltimore Watercolor Society is the third oldest organization in the country devoted to the use of watercolor as a painting medium. Since its founding, numerous artists of national reputation have been associated with the Society as members, exhibitors and jurors.

The purpose of the Society is to encourage cultural interest in the development of professional quality, original works of art, executed in aqueous media.

The Society offers its Signature Artist Members and Associate Artist Members opportunities to exhibit in local and regional shows, frequent newsletters, workshops, lectures and demonstrations, and trips to major exhibitions.

The Baltimore Watercolor Society is a 501(C3) non-profit charitable organization, incorporated in the State of Maryland.

Juror's Statement

I believe that my job as a juror was to assemble a collection of paintings that represents the broadest and most varied spectrum of the entries. I want to congratulate everyone who was accepted. It was very tough to narrow 100 paintings from the 466 submitted!

I looked for strong design and composition, repetition of color and shape. I especially appreciated the creativity and originality of many of the entries. Style and technique are very important, but I like to see the hand of the artist in the painting. Just recording the facts from a photo reference should not take the place of personal interpretation.

To everyone who did not get accepted into the show, please don't be discouraged. Kudos for putting yourself out there! Thank you to the Baltimore Watercolor Society for asking me to judge this show. I truly enjoyed it! Congratulations to all the award winners.

Word from the Mid-Atlantic Chair

It's 2021. Welcome to the new normal—online exhibits, YouTube instructional videos galore, and Zoom meetings and workshops. But despite all the interruptions to our normal routines, there was still time to paint. And what an amazing deluge of submissions we received. There were more paintings of people and landscapes this year, perhaps reflecting what we missed the most. Of the 466 images that were sent, our juror had the most difficult task of selecting only 104 for your viewing pleasure.

I extend my thanks to April Rimpo, Bob Coe, Dana Kleinsteuber and Janet Arsenalt for all their work to bring this event to fruition, and to Brenda Kidera for crafting this remarkable catalog. To all of the members of the board (and sometimes their significant others) who volunteer their time, remarkable skills and physical efforts, the community of over 650 members of BWS join me in thanks.

Next year we'll hope for the return of the old normal to celebrate and enjoy the art in person.
